

STUDENT AGREEMENT

UCSB Travel Study to Greece

June 20 - August 2, 2009

THIS AGREEMENT, made and entered into as of the _____ day of _____, 2009, by and between THE REGENTS OF THE UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, herein after called "University," and _____ herein after called "Student."

WHEREAS, Student desires to participate in the UCSB Summer Sessions Greece Travel Study Program, hereinafter referred to as "Program," under the terms and conditions herein set forth. Furthermore, Student will enroll in a minimum of three classes: one in Athens - Classics 80A; and, two in Paros - Classics 39, or Classics 36 or Classics 104 offered through the University of California, Santa Barbara Summer Sessions in Athens and Paros, Greece.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the promises and covenants herein, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. In accordance with the provisions of the "UC Santa Barbara Summer Sessions 2009" catalogue, the terms and conditions of which are incorporated herein by reference, the Student at his/her expense will:
  - a. Arrange air transportation from Los Angeles to Athens, Greece (Round-trip).
Also arrange own transportation from Athens to the HERC and to Paros.
  - b. Pay the $200.00 non-refundable deposit fee due May 1, 2009 with the Application.
  - c. Pay the Program Fee of $3,700* which covers the housing in Athens and Paros, some meals in Athens, and a materials fee. The $200 non-refundable deposit will be credited toward the Program Fee in the student's BARC account. Fees are due no later than June 15 on BARC.
*Fees are pending the Chancellor's approval, and are subject to change.
  - d. Pay Summer Session Travel Study unit fees as approved by the Chancellor. Student will take a minimum of 12 units.
  - e. If Summer Sessions should cancel the program, the Program Fee and Deposit will be refunded to the student as a credit to the student's BARC account.
  - f. Students who withdraw or become disqualified to participate in the Travel Study Program after they submit the application and non-refundable deposit are subject to the $200 fee, regardless of the reason for withdrawal if the withdrawal is between May 1 and June 15, 2009. Students who withdraw from the program after June 15, 2009 and/or fail to appear for classes in Athens or Paros are subject to a $1,000 cancellation fee, plus any applicable unit fees, regardless of the reason for withdrawal. Withdrawal from the program, either before or after departure, requires written notification to the travel study program manager.
  - g. Provide a completed Housing Form and photo by May 1, 2009 to Summer Sessions.
  - h. Read and sign this Student Agreement by May 1, 2009 and return to Summer Sessions.
  - i. Provide a completed Travel Clearance Form by May 15, 2009 to Summer Sessions.
  - j. Provide a completed Confidential Health Form by May 15, 2009 to Summer Sessions.
  - k. Provide a copy of your Travel Itinerary by May 15, 2009 to Summer Sessions.
  - l. Register for UC Student Off-Campus Travel Accident Insurance at www.uctravel.org by completing the "Business Traveler Insurance" form by May 15, 2009.
2. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, Student agrees that in the event the Instructor of the Class, at his or her exclusive discretion, shall determine that the conduct or academic standard of Student are detrimental to the best interests of the Program, the Instructor may terminate the participation of Student in the Program. In the event of a termination pursuant to this paragraph, University shall not be required to refund to Student any payment or portion thereof made to University. University may make such refunds as it, at its sole discretion, deems appropriate under the circumstances and consistent with University policy.

3. It is understood between the parties hereto that given the international nature of the Program, the conduct of Student during the course of the Program is of utmost importance. Student therefore agrees to conform to the highest standards of conduct including regular attendance of all classes for which Student is registered, and to conform to all applicable rules, regulations, and policies of the Hellenic Education & Research Center (HERC) and in Paros the Cyclades Institute of Archaeology. Misconduct and actions that may jeopardize the Student's own welfare or that of fellow students in the Program includes, but is not limited to, the following: the use of physical or verbal violence, violating the laws of the country, openly abusing the customs and mores of the community, unauthorized absences from classes. Student understands that failure to conform to appropriate standards of conduct may result in, among other consequences, the termination of Student's participation in the Program.
4. In addition, it is understood by the parties hereto that all policies relating to substance abuse at the University of California apply equally to Students abroad who are receiving credit from the University through this Program. Students violating University policies relating to substance abuse while abroad will be subject to the procedures for disciplinary action established by the University.
5. Student understands and agrees that it is his/her responsibility to have sufficient funds available for self-support while participating in the Program and for his/her return transportation from the Host Country.
6. Student understands that living in a foreign country may involve health and other personal risks. Student agrees to complete honestly, accurately and fully all required pre-departure confidential health forms, and to exercise reasonable or recommended precautions while abroad with respect to food, drink, personal hygiene, personal conduct, and exposure to known disease risk factors, and sexual contact and behavior (HIV/AIDS and other sexually-transmitted diseases). Student understands and agrees that it is Student's responsibility to determine, in consultation with competent medical authorities, whether or not Student should participate in the Program, and whether any vaccinations or other health concerns need to be addressed. Student further agrees to conform to applicable Host Country medical examination requirements for a visa application. Student understands that building safety standards in foreign countries are not the same as those in the United States and agrees to accept attendant risks.
7. Student hereby grants permission for possible use of his/her name and photograph for publicity and/or orientation purposes of the Program in publications, audio-visual presentations, and other related media.
8. Student agrees to complete and return by the specified deadlines all documents, (copy of passport or birth certificate) and forms provided for the Program prior to his/her departure, and understands that failure to do so may result in refusal to allow Student to register for the Program. Students who are not registered for the Program may not participate.
9. Student agrees to read and sign the University of California Waiver of Liability, Assumption of Risk, and Indemnity Agreement and submit the form to the Summer Sessions Office by May 15, 2009. Student must be 18 years or older and in good academic standing and to participate in this program.
10. Should student incur an outstanding bill at the host institutions, Student agrees to make payment prior to departure. Should Student fail to make payment, Student understands he/she will be billed for all outstanding debts and that Student's academic records may be placed on hold until debts are paid in full. The outstanding bills may include, but not limited to:

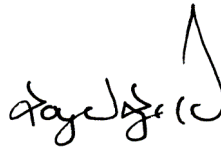

- a. Telephone charges.
  - b. Property damages.
  - c. Room service charges.
  - d. Lost keys.
11. In the event the U.S. State Department advises travelers not to go to Greece, the program will be cancelled. It is expressly understood by the parties to the Agreement that the University reserves the right to terminate the Program at any time it deems the safety or welfare of students is at risk. Students are strongly advised to purchase air travel cancellation insurance.
12. Student understands that the Student Guide contains vital information regarding the Program and international travel; and agrees to read the Student Guide prior to departure to the Program site.
13. Student understands that important information is communicated over email from the Summer Sessions Office and Program Director. Student agrees to check email regularly. Student also agrees to inform the Summer Sessions Office and or Director of the Program about any change of address, telephone, or email address.
14. Student may choose to purchase the optional International Student Identity Card.
15. It is mutually understood between the parties hereto that this Agreement contains all the terms and conditions to which the parties have agreed and that no other understandings or representations, either oral or written, regarding the subject matter of this contract shall be deemed to exist or to bind the parties hereto and that any modification or amendment of this Agreement will be only by written instrument signed by each party hereto.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have hereunto executed this Agreement the day and year first above written.
